COUTTS APPOINTS KARA GOURLEY TO CANADA CENTRE

Coutts Information Services announced today the appointment of Kara Gourley to the newly created position of Area Manager, Canada Centre.

Clare Appavoo, Sales Director for Canada, reports: 'As Coutts continues to grow and we strengthen our partnerships with the Canadian library community, we are pleased to announce this key appointment to our sales team. Kara's intelligence, experience and good humour will stand her in good stead as she joins me, Yves Vanier in Canada East and Alison Griffin in Canada West in our commitment to provide librarians with the best service in the industry.'

'Kara comes to Coutts with a background in library sales, most recently with EBSCO publishing. She was the Regional Sales Manager for Western Canada responsible for EBSCO database business, managing both field and internal sales representatives. Kara also has experience in academic publishing, having worked in sales for the Higher Education divisions of both McGraw-Hill Ryerson and HarperCollins Publishing in Atlantic Canada.'

Kara will be based out of her home office in Toronto. She can be reached at:
